

Alison Simpson (Chief Executive)Email: asimpson@iag.co.gg

Alison is the Chief Executive of IAG. In addition, she is a director of a number of Guernsey-based investment management companies and funds. She has 20 years' experience in the fields of offshore banking and fund administration services and co-founded IAG in February 2000. Prior to this, she spent ten years at Guernsey's largest fund administration company where she was responsible for a variety of clients and offshore fund structures, both open and closed-ended. Alison has an extensive knowledge of all operational matters relating to funds of all types built up over her many years in the industry and has assisted in the structuring of many fund products. She is a director of open ended Class B schemes and closed ended property funds listed on the London, Dublin and Channel Islands stock exchanges.

Mark Woodall (CFO)Email: mwoodall@iag.co.gg

Mark is the Chief Financial Officer of IAG, an Associate of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Bankers. He has 17 years' experience in offshore fund administration, during which time he has been a director of a number of offshore funds, managers and advisers. Prior to co-founding IAG in February 2000, he was company secretary, financial controller and head of operations for funds with assets in excess of £5 billion at Guernsey's largest fund administrator. His expertise is in the establishment, compliance, company secretarial and accounting for funds of all types.

Raymond Page (Managing Director)Email: rpage@iag.co.gg

Raymond was appointed Managing Director in September 2006. He previously managed the European operations of a leading international financial services group, looking after four jurisdictions and more than 350 staff. His 18 year career with that Group gave him extensive experience of a number of jurisdictions, in particular United Kingdom, Jersey, Guernsey, Geneva, Luxembourg, British Virgin Islands and the Bahamas. Raymond is a Fellow of the Association of Chartered and Certified Accountants in England and Wales.

Chris Cochrane (Managing Director, Private Equity)Email: ccochrane@iag.co.gg

Chris is a chartered secretary and has 20 years' experience within the Guernsey financial services industry, 15 of which have been focused on private equity fund administration with Northern Trust (formerly Guernsey International Fund Managers Limited). He has been involved in the establishment of many high profile private equity funds and has held a range of board appointments for both fund management and fund investment companies incorporated in Guernsey and other jurisdictions. His most recent client base has included property, secondaries, buyout, funds of funds and special situations funds.

Julian Carey 紀禮彝 (Managing Director, Hong Kong)Email: jcarey@iagasia.hk

Julian joined us in October 2010 after 17 years' experience in offshore fund administration with Credit Suisse and HSBC (formerly Bank of Bermuda). He previously managed the US operations of a leading international fund administrator, based in New York, before returning to Hong Kong. He has for many years been a director on the boards of client funds investing into emerging markets including Asia. Julian's expertise is in fund formation and establishment, corporate governance and client relationship management across a broad range of alternative assets funds. Julian has also served as a Detective Inspector in the Royal Hong Kong Police.

Neil Fell (Client Accounting Director)Email: nfell@iag.co.gg

Neil is the client accounting director and is a fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. Neil was formerly the Director of Client Accounting at Close Fund Services Limited and prior to this was Senior Audit Manager for Ernst & Young in Guernsey. During Neil's 21 years in the finance industry he has gained extensive experience in financial reporting, accounting standards and client relationships at a senior level for many different structures using International Financial Reporting Standards, UKGAAP and USGAAP.

David Earles (Project / IT Director)Email: dearles@iag.co.gg

David joined us in January 2008 after 21 years in fund systems/project co-ordination roles of which the last 15 years were with Northern Trust (formerly Guernsey International Fund Managers Limited), where he latterly held the position of head of Private Equity Systems. He has extensive applications development/implementation, business analysis and project management experience, with specific emphasis on private equity applications.

Nigel Carey (Non-Executive Director)

Nigel is a Guernsey Advocate and until recently a partner in the Channel Island law firm of Carey Olsen. He recently retired to act as a consultant to the firm. A past Chairman of the Guernsey Bar Council, from 1997 to 1999, and formerly an Ordinary Member of the Guernsey Financial Services Commission, he is currently a director of a number of Guernsey-based mutual fund companies and investment companies. Nigel holds a degree in law from the University of Southampton and qualified as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales in 1974. He was called to the Guernsey Bar in 1975 and has been a non-executive director of IAG since February 2001.

Gordon Fitzjohn (Non-Executive Director)

Gordon is a non-executive director of IAG with over 30 years' offshore and international finance sector experience, most of which was gained with Deutsche Bank (initially, Morgan Grenfell) from where he retired towards the end of 2004. Gordon established the fund administration services business at Morgan Grenfell which grew significantly after its acquisition by Deutsche Bank in 1990. Gordon gained extensive knowledge of the offshore/international financial services sector during his 25 years at Deutsche. More recently Gordon founded Grapevine Capital Partners which specialises in identifying strategic partners for businesses. Gordon is an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Bankers and a Member of the Chartered Securities Institute.

Andrew N Johnson (Managing Director, Cayman)Email: ajohnson@wilmingtontrust.com

Andrew holds a bachelor's degree in Accounting from Florida State University and received his Certified Public Accountant certificate in the state of Georgia.

Andrew has considerable tenure in the offshore financial services industry, specialising in securitisations, funds, structured finance, captive insurance management, catastrophe bond administration and financial planning strategies for special purpose vehicles. A native Caymanian, Andrew has excellent local business relationships in Grand Cayman and also travels regularly throughout Europe and the US to develop new business relationships and to serve existing clients.

Andrew is a member and part president of the Cayman Islands Society of Professional Accountants. He served on the board of Cayman Finance from 2003 through 2009 and currently serves on the board of the Cayman Islands Airport Authority. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and a Notary Public of the Cayman Islands.

Nigel Corbin (Compliance Officer)Email: ncorbin@iag.co.gg

Nigel is IAG's compliance officer and has 33 years' experience in the Guernsey offshore sector having previously been head of internal audit at Royal Bank of Canada in Guernsey for 10 years and latterly a Senior Associate Director, and Head of Banking at Deutsche Bank in Guernsey. In recent years Nigel has acted as a freelance compliance consultant and compliance trainer and has gained the International Diploma in Compliance from and is a Fellow of the International Compliance Association.